French pastries from Choux Café

by Emmanuel Mollois

with photographs by Karin Calvert-Borshoff

About the Book

Chef Emmanuel Mollois' irrepressible enthusiasm is baked into every page of this gorgeous cookbook. You'll be tempted by Emmanuel's delicious and easy-to-follow recipes and seduced by photographer Karin Calvert-Borshoff's mouth-watering pictures.

Emmanuel has selected some of the most popular French pastries. All the favourites are here: croissants, éclairs, lemon tart, crème brulee, madeleines, truffles, cherry clafoutis and more.

About the Author

Originally from the Vendée region on the Atlantic coast, Emmanuel established himself as a chef in renowned Parisian restaurants like Pavillon Puebla and Petrus with Jacky Louazé and Rolland Cousin. Since arriving in Australia 12 years ago he has worked in La Brasserie in Toorak Road Melbourne and The Willows in St Kilda Road Melbourne. He has been head pastry chef at Alain Fabrègues' award-winning Loose Box restaurant in Mundaring and was proprietor of Le Paris-Brest Pâtisserie Français in Kalamunda before opening Choux Café in Swanbourne. The Choux Café in Swanbourne was recently judged 'best in the west' by the Sunday Times.
