How Frogmouth Found her Home

AMBELIN KWAYMULLINA

'Frogmouth, like my other stories, is a tale formed and informed by my culture as an Aboriginal person. This particular story was, I believe, given to me by the Frogmouths to tell, which is why it is dedicated to them – that is my way of giving the story back.'
Ambelin Kwaymullina

About the Book

Frogmouth isn't like the other birds. She doesn't want to live in the trees. She is in search of something more.

Frogmouth travels the land hunting for a new nesting place, but nothing feels right. On her way, she helps other animals find their true homes, but still she searches. Only when she meets Moon and hears his intriguing offer can she finally find her true home.

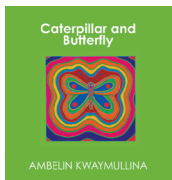

About the Author

Ambelin Kwaymullina is an Indigenous writer and illustrator who comes from the Bailgu and Njamal peoples of the Pilbara region of Western Australia. By day she works as a lecturer in law at the University of Western Australia and by night she writes, paints and makes jewellery.
