

MEDIA RELEASE

someoneelse'scountry

BY PETER DOCKER

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK

'An extraordinary achievement, as both literature and cultural analysis. Reading this is a privilege ... rarely have I been so moved.'
Rolf De Heer, The Tracker, Ten Canoes

'This book is written from the inside out. And that's what it did to me — turned me inside out.'
Pete Postlethwaite OBE, Usual Suspects, In The Name Of The Father, Liyarn Nyarn

ABOUT THE BOOK

On a remote cattle station a small boy begins a profound journey into an Australia few whitefellas know ...

This is a journey into another place—a genuine meeting ground for Black and White Australia, a place built on deep personal engagement and understanding.

A fearless, funny and profoundly moving Australian story.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Peter Docker was born in Wiilman Country at Narrogin, Western Australia, and is of Irish, Cornish and English heritage. He grew up on a station in Wudjari Country at Coomalbidgup, near Esperance. He has worked as a dairy-hand, hay carter, wheat-bogger, window-washer, bank teller, lift driver and barman. He has written short stories published in Australian literary journals and has written for stage and radio. Someone Else's Country is his first book.

MEDIA POINTS

New edition of a book that aroused controversy and acclaim when first published.

The book continues to generate interest due to the author's ongoing participation in national theatre productions.

Author is currently working on a play about accused thieves the Mickelberg brothers.

Pub. Date	March 2009
ISBN	9781921361500
eISBN	9781922089076
RRP	$24.95
Genre	Creative Non-fiction
Format	PB, B
Extent	416pp

CONTACT: CLAIRE MILLER MARKETING & COMMUNICATIONS MANAGER

M +61 (0)419 837 841
T +61 (0)8 9430 6331
F +61 (0)8 9430 5242
E cmiller@fremantlepress.com.au
Find us on Facebook
@FremantlePress

 FREMANTLE PRESS
fremantlepress.com.au