BHUTAN HEARTLAND

TRAVELS IN THE LAND OF THE THUNDER DRAGON

BY ROBERT VAN KOESVELD AND LIBBY LLOYD

ABOUT THE BOOK

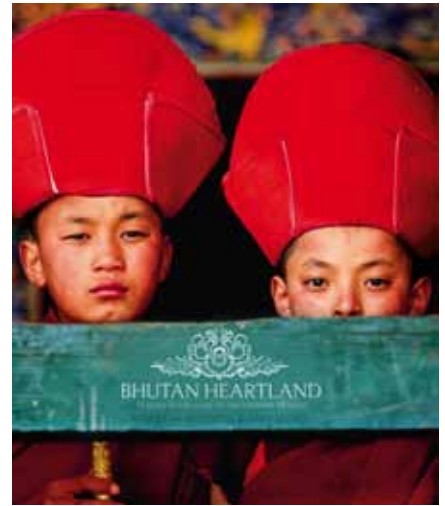

This stunning photographic journey goes straight to the heart of Bhutan. The authors explore the culture, history, beliefs and dazzling Himalayan landscapes of the world's newest democracy taking us into the lives of its people. The result is a book of brilliant and evocative photographs and stories about this remote mountain kingdom.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Robert van Koesveld and Libby Lloyd set aside successful careers in psychotherapy and social work to focus on the delights of travel and photography. Travel began early: Libby migrated from England in 1951 and over-landed from Kathmandu to London in 1970. Before graduating, Robert had hitchhiked around Australia and canoed down the Sepik River in pre-independent Papua New Guinea. In recent years they have explored Bhutan, Laos, Cambodia, Vietnam, China, Uzbekistan, Kyrgyzstan, India, Malaysia, Mali, Morocco, Cuba and Europe.
