A Sausage Went for a Walk

BY ELLISHA MAJID
WITH ILLUSTRATIONS BY PETER KENDALL

20 years on and still full of beans

20TH
ANNIVERSARY EDITION

ABOUT THE BOOK

Want to butter up your young reader? 47,000 children have egged on Sausage as he scrambled away from the breakfast table.

Find out why Sausage is so full of beans after 20 years spent avoiding poachers and cereal killers who'd like to get him into hot water.

A flaky story that, two decades later, is still so fresh it's straight from the cow.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Elisha Majid was born in Kuala Lumpur but lived for several years in England, the US and Melbourne. She now lives in Perth, teaches at a high school and enjoys reading, yoga, good food and the outdoors. She has two adult children.

ABOUT THE ARTIST

Peter Kendall is an artist who is active in many areas, from corporate and portrait commissions, to paintings for exhibitions, to illustrating books, and cartooning. He has published five picture books.
