Small Wonders

A CLOSE LOOK AT NATURE'S MINIATURES

BY STANLEY AND
KAISA BREEDEN

ABOUT THE BOOK

Award-winning nature photographers Stanley and Kaisa Breeden explore Australia's small animal life to reveal the wonder and beauty of looking closely into nature. Their specially developed digital photography techniques make it possible to see intriguing details you may never have suspected were there.

ABOUT THE AUTHORS

Stanley Breeden began photography as a teenager in the late 1950s. He has published twenty books on Australian and Indian wildlife and has contributed to most major English-language nature magazines. Stan has been the recipient of two Emmy Awards for his work as a documentary-maker with National Geographic.

Kaisa Breeden is a third-generation artist who is captivated by the mastery of digital photography and fine art printing. Since convincing Stan to go digital, the pair have specialised in macro nature photography using natural light.

MEDIA NOTES

- Stanley and Kaisa were the ANZANG Nature and Landscape Photographers of the Year in 2006 and won the ANZANG Portfolio Prize in 2007. The pair won the 2010 Eric Rolls Prize for natural history writing.
- Features over 80 stunning fine art photographs using the focus stacking technique the pair are famous for.
