Survivors of the Holocaust speak

Alice Nelson
WITH A FOREWORD BY
Arnold Zable

ABOUT THE BOOK

On 27 January 2015, the world commemorated the 70-year anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz-Birkenau. As the last living witnesses of that terrible time pass away, award-winning writer Alice Nelson presents a powerful collection of fourteen narratives by Australian Holocaust survivors told in their voices. Each individual's account of the war years – and of the life that followed – tells a deeply personal story that affirms the resilience of the human spirit.

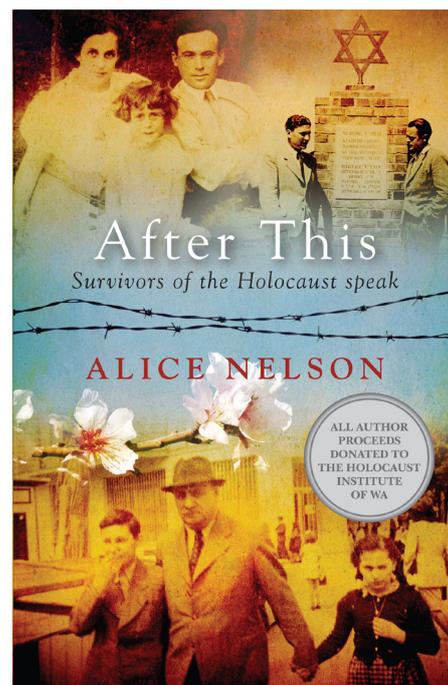

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Alice Nelson is an Australian writer. Her first novel, The Last Sky, was shortlisted for The Australian/Vogel's Literary Award, won the T.A.G. Hungerford Award and was shortlisted for the Australian Society of Authors' Barbara Jefferis Award. She was named Best Young Australian Novelist of 2009 in the Sydney Morning Herald's national awards program. Alice works as a freelance journalist and teaches creative writing. She is currently completing her doctorate in the School of English and Cultural Studies at the University of Western Australia.
