

MEDIA RELEASE

AUSTRALIA'S WEST RICHARD WOLDENDORP

ABOUT THE BOOK

Richard Woldendorp, AM is one of Australia's best-known landscape photographers. Now in its third edition, Australia's West is his most impressive – and sought after – hardcover photographic book.

Breathtaking and varied, the new edition reflects recent changes in Western Australia's natural and built environments and showcases the beauty and drama of the state's vast landscapes.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Richard Woldendorp, AM was born in Utrecht, Holland, in 1927. He has lived in Australia since 1951. Named Australian Photographer of the Year for his landscape photography, Richard's love of the Australian landscape has led to extensive travels throughout the country. He is the author of more than twenty books, and his photographs have been exhibited in Australia and overseas. In 2012, Richard was appointed to the Order of Australia for services to the arts as an Australian landscape photographer.

PRAISE FOR THE BOOK

'The red pindan earth, tawny sands, stretched blue skies and pink wildflowers tell their vibrant stories with no need of enhancement.'
Weekend Australian

'... some of his best work is showcased in this impressive book
Australia's West'

RM Williams OUTBACK
